

My family and I have listened to KLOVE almost every day for the last seven years. It is the only radio station I know that has a format I feel safe letting my children listen to. I know that there will be no bad language, no references to drugs, alcohol or sex. It is wholesome radio and serves the needs of thousands of listeners each day. If Klove were to be displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming it would be a bad situation. Only Klove cares enough to support our beliefs and offer contemporary christian music. I would stop listening to the radio if you take radio stations like KLOVE off the airwaves. Other stations just care about making profits. They are into shock performances with extremely bad languages and references to drugs, alcohol and sex. The service provided by KLOVE is essential to the public as it offers an alternative choice to the many, many secular radio stations that are out there.

Karen Fragale